The Education Fund Honors Palmetto High Graduate Sukrit Agrawal

Sukrit Agrawal, CEO of American Medical Depot (AMD), a mid-sized company specializing in healthcare and supply chain management, is one of this year's Sapoznik Insurance Alumni Achievement award winners.

Mr. Agrawal will be honored at The Education Fund's For the Love of Art Annual Charity Auction at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, June 5 at the University of Miami Life Science & Technology Park, 1951 NW 7th Ave., in Miami.

This year the Alumni Achievement Awards are given to public school graduates whose entrepreneurship or leadership have energized our local economy through the creation of jobs, small businesses and strong economic development.

Born in New Delhi, India, Mr. Agrawal graduated from Duke University in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering. He received his master's in business administration from Florida International University in 1989. During the years preceding his establishment of AMD, Mr. Agrawal held various positions in banking and in government.

He is active in numerous groups and associations, especially in the healthcare industry. Mr. Agrawal is currently a member of the Miami chapter of the Young Presidents' Organization and serves on the boards for both Nova Southeastern University and Florida International University.
